

Made for Golf

Watch tournaments on TV with the same vital information the pros and caddies use!

Impossible to Buy for Dad? Watch Golf on TV?

Does that describe most guys in the world? The Orange StrackaLine yardage book is a great gift for him or her, your client, or yourself.

Many of the professional golfers you see each week on TV carry the Orange StrackaLine. The StrackaLine is filled with vital information - yardage, lays, target areas, and more - that information is critical in deciding how to best approach a hole. Whether the golfer on your list gets to play the world-class tournament courses or just watches the pros do it, these Orange Yardage Books from Stracka are a great gift.

The Orange StrackaLine box set contains:

- 27 actual tournament books for the 2010 golf season.
- 5 Vintage books from previous Major Championships.
- A custom wooden gift box will look great on a desk or bookshelf.

90% of Amateur Golfers do not Have a Correct Grip

Patented new golf training aid, Checks, Corrects, and Reinforces a professional grip. From Henry Brunton, PGA Master Professional, Canadian National Men's coach since 1999. Use it on your clubs for practice and play, installs in seconds with excellent club feel. After several games, remove from clubs as professional grip now feels natural. Leads to longer and straighter shots and above all greater consistency. Pop up poly carbonate lens for a precise neutral, stronger or weaker grip as desired.
